Navratna and Miniratna status

2348. SHRIMATI PREMA CARIAPPA:
SHRI SANTOSH BAGRODIA:

Will the Minister of HEAVY INDUSTRIES AND PUBLIC ENTERPRISES be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have decided to give Navratna and Miniratna status to more PSEs;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether it is necessary to have a certain number of Independent Directors on the Board to exercise the autonomy of Navratna and Miniratna status and if so, the details thereof;

(d) whether all such PSEs have the requisite number of Independent Directors on their Boards;

(e) if not, the reasons for granting status of Navratna or Miniratna; and

(f) how many of such Independent Directors have been retired Government servants or executives of PSEs?

THE MINISTER OF HEAVY INDUSTRIES AND PUBLIC ENTERPRISES (SHRI SONTOSH MOHAN DEV): (a) and (b) Initially Navratna status to selected Central Public Sector Enterprises (CPSEs) was granted in 1997. The Miniratna status is granted to CPSEs by the concerned administrative Ministry/Department after satisfying themselves that such CPSEs fulfilled the requirements in that regard.

(c) The induction of minimum four non-official Directors in the case of Navratna CPSEs and minimum three non-official Directors in the case of Miniratna CPSEs is one of the pre-conditions before the exercise of the enhanced delegation of authority.

(d) and (e) The CPSEs not having requisite number of non-official Directors on their Boards will not be able to exercise enhanced delegation of authority even after grant of Navratna/Miniratna status to them.

(f) During the years 2005 and 2006, recommendations in respect of 297 positions have been made by Search Committee/Public Enterprises Selection Board for appointment as non-official Directors on the Board of CPSEs. These recommendations include 85 former civil servants, 62 CPSE executives, 69 Academicians, 26 private sector executives, 14 Chartered Accountants, 41 other professionals.
